

Holy Cross Sisters support St. Vincent de Paul Society

During the COVID 19 lock down in Wisconsin, the Holy Cross Sisters were able to make a significant donation to St Vincent de Paul Society in Merrill. Below is a picture of the check presentation outside the Outreach Office. While maintaining social distancing, Sister Pat Cormack hands the check to Dick Duginski, the president of the council. Others pictured left to right are Jim Rell, Lisa Carlson, Tammy Cohrs, Sue Norenberg and Sister Linda Songy, a member of the local council representing the sisters. Seated is Judy Warren. The sisters have also supported Catholic Relief Services and Catholic Charities USA. Photo courtesy of Holy Cross Sisters Office of Communications.
